

Corporate Fact Sheet

Corporate Background

The law firm now known as SchmidtKramer was founded in 1983 by Charles “Chuck” Schmidt. The firm started with two partners and one secretary, but has grown over the years in personnel, prestige, and experience. The firm is home to a host of legal professionals, which includes six lawyers in a beautifully-restored historic building in downtown Harrisburg, Pennsylvania.

For more than 20 years SchmidtKramer has successfully litigated a wide range of personal injury claims throughout central Pennsylvania. The firm handles all forms of personal injury and litigation work, and is widely known for its car and truck accident litigation expertise. Additionally, the firm handles wrongful death, head and brain injury, construction accident injury, fire & burn injuries, workers’ compensation, nursing home abuse, defective products, birth injury, drug injury, and defective medical devices.

Without exceptions, the staff and attorneys at SchmidtKramer look out for their clients’ best interests, whether it be during the intake process, during trial, or whilst reaching a favorable settlement. Thorough preparation and tough-minded advocacy frequently enables the firm to help their clients reach a successful resolution with the opposing party.

The firm’s mission statement, “Prompt, Efficient, Professional, Ethical,” reflects its commitment to ensuring a just, reasonable, and timely recovery for all clients. Martindale-Hubbell, the national directory and ratings service for lawyers, has recognized SchmidtKramer for their highly professional legal standards and ethics.

SchmidtKramer has been committed to and involved in the community for many years. The firm has sponsored the annual golf tournament benefiting United Cerebral Palsy of Central Pennsylvania for a number of years, and their efforts have helped raise more than $200,000 for the organization. Senior partner Gerard “Gerry” Kramer is a past president of United Cerebral Palsy Central Pennsylvania and continues to serve the organization in a variety of capacities.

Chuck Schmidt and Gerry Kramer have raised funds by participating in the Multiple Sclerosis 150, a bike tour to and from Philadelphia and the Jersey shore that serves as a major fundraiser for multiple sclerosis. Additionally, the firm sponsors a number of youth athletic programs and volunteers the time of its members to help support these activities.
